From the Harlem Courant, dated June 7.

Amsterdam, June 6.

THE last Letters from Leghorne advise, That two French Ships, call'd the Golden Moon and the Saint Stephen, are arriv'd there from Saint Jean d'Acre (or Ptolemais), which Place they left on the 26th of January, and the Masters report, that they had News there that a great Plague rages in Egypt; that a New Bassa is come to Saint Jean d'Acre, and since his Arrival has caus'd the Heads of at least 400 Janisaries to be cut off; that he has reduc'd the Value of Pieces of Eight that were Current there at 66 Pence (suppose) to 55; And has forbidden on very severe Penalties the Selling of Coffee-Berries to the Franks to be transported to Europe.

From the Amsterdam Gazette, dated June 7.

They write from Naples of the 16th of last Month, that a Palace is fitting up for the Reception of the Count de Toulouze, whom they expect to come thither this Summer with a Squadron of French Ships of War: That there is a Talk of Suppressing several Offices, and lessening the Salaries of divers Officers, to raise Money for further securing the Coasts by making new Fortifications. And that the Count de Lemos is gone from thence to take Possession of his Viceroyalty of Sardinia; by whose absence the Prince de Monasterole is become General of the Gallies of Naples, and has order'd four of them to be equipp'd with all speed, to cruize upon the Corsairs of Barbary that infest the Coasts of the Kingdom of Naples. These Letters add, That a certain Priest being found in a Shop reading a Letter from the Duke de Gaetano, and several more Letters from that Duke and other Partisans of the House of Austria who have fled the Kingdom being upon Search found in his Lodgings, the Viceroy committed him to Prison, together with several other Persons who are charg'd with holding a Correspondence with the Enemies of the present Government; and who 'tis suppos'd were detected by those Letters.

From the Hague Gazette, dated June 11.

Rome, May 19. The Pope has pass'd the greatest part of this Week in publick Acts of Devotion, and in giving Audience to the Forreign Ministers residing at this Court. Cardinal Janfon acquainted his Holiness t'other day, with a great deal of Joy, that he had just receiv'd a Letter from the Ambassador of France at Venice, informing him that the Marshal de Villars had forc'd the Passes of the Black Forrest and joyn'd the Duke of Bavaria. The Prior of the Convent of Saint Onuphrius, nam'd Father Bartolini, having accommodated some Spaniards and Frenchmen with a Room in his House to hold their Cabals in, and the Imperial Ambassador getting Information of what pass'd in those Meetings, sent a Gentleman to signifie to the said Father Bartolini, that there was little Necessity for his officiously busying himself at Rome to promote a Faction against the House of Austria, and that therefore it would be safe for him to retire out of it without much delay; the Father allarm'd at the Message, set his Friends at work to make his Peace with the Ambassador, and in Person submitted himself and made Satisfaction to his Excellency, who has thereupon forgiven him. The Governour of this City has notified to the Roman Barons, that if their Footmen continue to commit Disorders in the Night-time, he will cause them to be taken up and publickly corrected, even in their Liveries. The Cardinal de Bouillon will shortly return from France hither, and take up his Residence in the Palazzo Pamphilio, his Eminencies Steward is already arriv'd to give Orders for the said Palace to be fitted up against his coming. Prince Vahini having receiv'd a Letter from the Duke de Vendome, is on his departure to make the Campaign as a Voluntier in the Army of the two United Crowns of France and Spain, and will be attended by a numerous Retinue: And several Noblemen of this Country are preparing to go to the Imperial Army commanded by Count Staremberg to serve in the like Quality. On the 17th Cardinal Fourbin introduc'd the Marquess de Brancaccio, (whose Brother assisted last Year in defending Cadiz,) with five French Officers to Kiss the Pope's Foot; and his Holiness order'd Medals of Gold and Silver, suitable to their different Qualities, to be given them. The Marquess has amongst his Domesticks a little Slave of eight Years old who speaks four Languages, whom his Master, they say, intends to send to Paris for a Present to the Dutcheff of Burgundy.

From the Hague Gazette, dated June 20.

Venice, May 20. They write from Legnano in the Veronese, that 10000 French have made an Irruption out of the Mantuan into the Territories of this Republick, and that in the Neighbourhood of Legnano they made an Attempt to take by Force a certain quantity of Corn and other Provisions out of one of our Noblemen's Houses; his Steward with some Sclavonian Soldiers oppos'd this Violence, and kill'd two of the French Soldiers; whereupon a great Number of them fell upon him and those that assisted him, knock'd them all on the Head, and set the House on fire together with part of a Village call'd Sanguinee.
